This Bill contains 31 clauses.

Clause 1 provides for the short title.

Clause 2 amends the Trustee Ordinance by inserting a new section 2B which would allow the Registrar General to accept applications for registration of an express trust or other form of legal arrangement after the periods stipulated in section 2A (2) (within three months of the coming into force of that section, February 17, 2026) or in section 2A (2A), within fourteen (14) days of its creation. The applicant would be required to apply on the prescribed form, pay the prescribed fee together with a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for every month there is failure to comply. This clause would also amend the Trustee Ordinance by inserting a new section 14 to enable the Registrar General to determine whether documents are required to be filed in typed or printed form or in electronic form. This clause would also require the submission of valid identification documents or other supporting documents as specified by the Registrar General.

Clause 3 amends section 40 of the Gambling and Betting Act to increase the fines for the holder of a betting office licence employing a disqualified person, and for failing to produce his licence upon request, respectively.

Clause 4 amends the Fifth Schedule of the Prison Service Act. This amendment provides for the calculation of a prison officer's superannuation benefits based on the salary of the acting office if the officer has served continuously in that position for a minimum of twelve months before compulsory retirement.

Clause 5 amends Regulation 183A of the Police Service Regulations. This amendment provides for the calculation of a police officer's superannuation benefits based on the salary of the acting office if the officer has served continuously in that position for a minimum of twelve months before compulsory retirement.

Clause 6 amends section 5B(1) of the Registrar General Act by deleting the words "may determine" and substituting the words "shall determine". The effect of the proposed amendment would enable the Registrar General to determine the mode of filing documents.

Clause 7 amends section 12 of the Registration of Clubs Act to increase the fines for supplying, selling or keeping for supply or sale, in an unregistered club, intoxicating liquor.

Clause 8 amends section 31(5) of the Pharmacy Board Act to increase the fine for a person who sells any drug listed or described in the Second Schedule to the Act, without first obtaining a valid licence.

Clause 9 amends section 13(3) of the Pesticides and Toxic Chemicals Act to increase the fine for offences committed under section 13, including contravening the Act, assaulting or obstructing an inspector, failing to keep records and making false statements.

Clause 10 amends the Tobacco Control Act to increase the penalties for offences committed under sections 13 to 17A, including the sale of any tobacco product to any person under the age of eighteen years, the display of tobacco products in such a way that they are visible to the public, and the purchase of any tobacco product through any self-service means.

Clause 11 amends the Fire Service Act in section 18 and the Fifth Schedule. This amendment provides for the calculation of a fire officer's superannuation benefits based on the salary of the acting office if the officer has served continuously in that position for a minimum of twelve months before compulsory retirement.

Clause 12 amends section 11 of the Motor Launches Act to increase the fine for offences for which no fine is stipulated in the Act.

Clause 13 amends section 244 of the Shipping Act to increase the fine for having more passengers on a passenger ship than is allowed by the relevant Passenger Ship Safety Certificate.

Clause 14 amends the Petroleum Regulations made under the Petroleum Act, Chap. 62:01, to provide for the definition of a “marginal marine gas field” and to provide that the royalty payable under an Exploration and Production (Public Petroleum Rights) Licence or Production Sharing Contract in respect of natural gas won and saved from a marginal marine gas field shall be calculated at the rate of eight per cent.

Clause 15 amends section 14 of the Copra Products Control Act to increase the fine for manufacturing copra products without a licence.

Clause 16 amends the Forests Act—

- (a) in section 7A(5), to increase the fine for a person who commits the offence of removing any timber from any land without a Removal Permit granted in accordance with section 7; and
- (b) in section 7F(4), to increase the fine for contravening section 7F.

Clause 17 amends the Sawmills Act—

- (a) in section 4A(6), to increase the fine for operating without a Log Haulage Permit; and
- (b) in section 5, to increase the fine for operating without a sawmill licence.

Clause 18 amends section 6 of the Conservation of Wild Life Act to increase the fine for failing to produce a licence for inspection and for hunting or obtaining a State Game Licence while disqualified.

Clause 19 amends section 15(3) of the Animal (Diseases, Importation, Health and Welfare) Act to increase the penalty for contravention of Regulations made under section 15.

Clause 20 amends section 43 of the Exchequer and Audit Act to permit money donated by any person to be a source of funding for funds established under section 43 of the Exchequer and Audit Act.

Clause 21 amends the Income Tax Act—

- (a) in section 8(1), by inserting new paragraphs (ta) and (tb) respectively. The proposed new paragraph (ta) would, with effect from January 1, 2026, exempt the income derived from an approved deferred annuity plan in accordance with section 28 of the Act, purchased by an individual who is a resident of Trinidad and Tobago and which plan matures between the age of fifty to seventy years of the individual.

The proposed new paragraph (tb) would, with effect from January 1, 2026, exempt the income derived from an approved pension fund plan in accordance with section 28, purchased by an individual who is a resident of Trinidad and Tobago.

Section 8 is further amended by inserting a new section (1B) which seeks to clarify that any reference to an approved pension fund plan or approved deferred annuity plan in subsection (1), (ta) and (tb) shall refer to plans approved before or after January 1, 2026;

- (b) by inserting a new section 18D to provide for new fiscal incentives for individuals making financial contributions to funds established under section 43 of the Exchequer and Audit Act approved by the Minister with responsibility for finance;
- (c) in section 28(9), by repealing subsection (9) and substituting a new subsection which would provide for the avoidance of doubt that any sum received when an approved pension fund plan or an approved deferred annuity plan is surrendered before the date of retirement or maturity shall be subject to tax; and
- (d) by inserting a new section 48O, which would allow landlords to claim a tax credit on their annual income tax. The credit would apply to payments they make toward their tax bill for that year, up to the full amount owed.

Clause 22 amends the Corporation Tax Act—

- (a) by inserting a new section 10AA, to provide for new fiscal incentives for companies making financial contributions to funds established under section 43 of the Exchequer and Audit Act approved by the Minister with responsibility for finance; and
- (b) by inserting a new section 16M, which would allow companies that are landlords to claim a tax credit on their annual income tax. The credit would apply to payments they make toward their tax bill for that year, up to the full amount owed.

Clause 23 amends the Miscellaneous Taxes Act—

- (a) in section 30(4), to increase the fine for an offence under section 30;
- (b) in section 75, by deleting the words “gross assets” wherever they occur and substituting the words “total assets”;
- (c) in section 81—
 - (i) to clarify that the initial registration fee for the Landlord Business Surcharge is a one-time fee to be paid on a per-landlord basis irrespective of the number of premises being let out by the landlord; and
 - (ii) by repealing subsections (4), (5) and (6) to remove the requirement implementing a public landlord register as well as to remove the requirement for the Board to supply “a certified extract” of the register to “any person” who applies in writing and pays a fee;
- (d) in section 82, to remove the payment of a prescribed fee for the grant of a duplicate certificate of registration;
- (e) in section 83, to align the payment of the landlord business surcharge with the existing tax return deadlines;
- (f) in section 85(1), by repealing paragraph (e), and inserting a new subsection (1A) to allow the Minister with responsibility for finance by Order to amend the list of persons or entities exempt from the landlord business surcharge; and
- (g) in section 93(3)(d), to specify that the Minister with responsibility for finance may exempt institutions from payment of the electricity surcharge.

Clause 24 amends section 45(1) of the Customs Act to prohibit the importation of all goods produced from forced labour as designated by the Minister with responsibility for trade.

Clause 25 amends section 488 of the Companies Act to enable the Registrar General to determine whether documents are required to be filed in typed or printed form or in electronic form. This clause would also require the submission of valid identification documents or other supporting documents as specified by the Registrar General. Clause 25 would also amend section 489(1) of the Companies Act by inserting a new paragraph (h) that would enable a company or other body corporate to apply to the Registrar General to be voluntarily struck off the register.

Clause 26 amends the Partnership Act by inserting a new section 20DA to enable the Registrar General to determine whether documents are required to be filed in typed or printed form or in electronic form. This clause would also require the submission of valid identification documents or other supporting documents as specified by the Registrar General.

Clause 27 amends section 2A(1) of the Registration of Business Names Act by deleting the words “may determine” and substituting the words “shall determine”. The effect of the proposed amendment would enable the Registrar General to determine the mode of filing documents. This clause would also insert a new subsection (3) of section 2A to require the submission of valid identification documents or other supporting documents as specified by the Registrar General.

Clause 28 amends the Liquor Licences Act to revise the maximum number of amusement games permitted on certain licensed premises, modernise the gaming tax regime in respect of amusement games and electronic roulette devices, make consequential amendments relating to the introduction of quarterly payment periods and refunds and increase specified penalties.

Paragraph (a) amends section 20A of the Act by increasing the maximum number of amusement games that may be operated on licensed premises, referred to in section 35(3) or (4) of the Act, from twenty to thirty-three. It would also insert new subsections (7) and (8) to create an offence for failure by the holder of a licence specified under section 35(3) or (4) to comply with subsection (1), prescribe the applicable penalty, provide for possible revocation of the licence, and define the term “amusement game” by reference to the Gambling and Betting Act.

Paragraph (b) amends section 20B of the Act by repealing and replacing subsections (1), (1A) and (1B) in order to establish a revised gaming tax regime applicable to every amusement game operated on premises referred to in section 20A, including electronic roulette devices. The amendment would prescribe separate quarterly rates of tax for all amusement games, require quarterly payment of the tax, provide special payment rules where a licence is granted after the commencement of a quarter, define the term “electronic roulette device”, define the quarters of the calendar year, make transitional provision for payment of tax for the period 1st April 2026 to 30th June 2026, and provide for refunds where tax has been overpaid in the year 2026, under the previous regime. The provision would further amend subsection (2) to substitute references to annual payment with references to quarterly payment commencing from the first quarter of the year 2026 and to make consequential amendments regarding proof of payment. The provision also would repeal subsection (9).

Paragraph (c) amends section 20C of the Act by substituting the word “year” with the word “quarter” in subsection (2), and by inserting a new subsection (8) to provide for the term “quarter” to have the meaning assigned by section 20B(1E).

Paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) amends sections 53, 54(1) and 64 of the Act, respectively, to increase the monetary fines specified in those sections.

Clause 29 amends the Income Tax (In Aid of Industry) Act to provide for the definition of a “marginal marine gas field”; to provide for an allowance in respect of expenditure on machinery or plant for use in connection with a marginal marine gas field; to provide for an allowance in respect of expenditure under Part III of the Act in relation to a marginal marine gas field; and to empower the Minister responsible for energy related matters to certify that a field is a marginal marine gas field for the purposes of the Act.

Clause 30 amends the Spirits and Spirit Compounds Act—

- (a) in section 7(3), to increase the fee for a distiller’s licence and to increase the fine for operating without a distiller’s licence;
- (b) in section 30, to increase the fine for offences committed under sections 26, 27, 28 and 29 and for the offence of using improper measuring devices or any devices to prevent accurate measuring;
- (c) in section 65(2), to increase the fine for compounding spirits for sale without a licence;
- (d) in section 75, to increase the fine for using spirits for a purpose other than which it is intended;
- (e) in section 79(2), to increase the fine for preparing medicinal spirits for sale without a licence;
- (f) in section 95(2), to increase the fine for manufacturing vinegar for sale without a licence; and
- (g) in section 122(2), to increase the fine for supplying, receiving and importing methylated spirits in contravention of the Act.

Clause 31 amends section 3A(1) of the Non-Profit Organisations Act by deleting the words “may determine” and substituting the words “shall determine”. The effect of the proposed amendment would enable the Registrar General to determine the mode of filing documents. This clause would also insert a new subsection (3) of section 3A to require the submission of valid identification documents or other supporting documents as specified by the Registrar General.
