4. Substantially all deposited property and cash of the CIF were distributed to unitholders, with any residual unclaimed amounts secured by a custodial arrangement, remaining available for collection by the persons that are entitled thereto;
5. The Chief Executive Officer, upon review of the filing by the Exchange under delegated authority, approved the delisting and accordingly authorized the issuance of the delisting order having determined that
 - the delisting does not adversely affect the rights of investors
 - the delisting is essentially procedural in nature

SECTION 7 STATEMENTS

SECTION 7 (1) (a) (i)

Function and Structure of the Equal Opportunity Tribunal

History:

The Equal Opportunity Act Chap 22:03 ('the Act') was passed by the Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago (Act 69 of 2000) on October 2nd. 2000, and assented to on the 20th of October 2000. It was subsequently amended by Act No 5 of 2001. Part VI of the Act came into operation on 20th of November 2000 and Parts I - V and Parts VII to IX of the Act came into operation on the 31st of January 2001.

This Act was enacted to -

“... to prohibit certain kinds of discrimination, to promote equality of opportunity between persons of different status, to establish an Equal Opportunity Commission and an Equal Opportunity Tribunal...”

The Act therefore provides protection for persons from discrimination on the basis of sex; race; ethnicity; the origin, (including geographical origin, religion; marital status; or any disability of that person (sections 4 and 5); victimisation (section 6) and offensive behaviour (section 7).

Establishment of the Equal Opportunity Tribunal

Part VIII of the Act provides for the creation of the Equal Opportunity Tribunal ('the Tribunal') as a superior court of record, headed by a Judge of equal status to a High Court Judge. The commencement of the Tribunal faced certain constitutional hurdles that continued up to 2007 when the Privy Council in the watershed decision of Suratt v. Attorney General [2007] UKPC 55 ruled that the Tribunal was constitutional and paved the way for the Tribunal to begin operations two (2) – (3) years later.

Structure of the Equal Opportunity Tribunal

The Tribunal comprises a Chairman, two Lay-Assessors supported by a Registrar appointed by the JLSC, and the approved staff and officers. The Tribunal's structure as approved by Cabinet is shown in Appendix I hereto.

Decision-making powers and other powers of the Equal Opportunity Tribunal

The Tribunal has the jurisdiction to hear and determine unresolved complaints referred to it pursuant to section 39(2) of the Act and makes such declarations, orders, and awards of compensation as it thinks fit (section 41(4) of the Act).

As a superior court of record, the Tribunal has all powers inherent in such a court as well as the special jurisdiction and powers conferred on it by the Act.

Decisions of the Tribunal in any proceedings are to be made and delivered by the Chairman (s. 44(7)) and the Lay-Assessors are to assist the Chairman in arriving at a decision (s. 42(4)). The Chairman must preside at all sittings of the Tribunal but may sit with only one Lay-Assessor. The Tribunal may (subject to the approval of the President of the Republic) make rules to govern its procedure and practice, including costs (s. 44(8)).

Effects of functions of the Equal Opportunity Tribunal on Members of Society

The effects of the Act on the society are limited. In general, most persons agree with the principles of non-discrimination, and equal treatment underpinning the Act. Support for the legislation is therefore high. However, knowledge of the specific legal provisions in the Act and rules for enforcement coupled with inadequate support and expert legal assistance, and possible fear of victimisation by complainants affect access to the remedies provided by the Act.

The enforcement of Act is left mainly to persons/victims of discrimination, who have to take action to enforce the law. Not surprisingly, therefore, despite the legal protection provided by the Act against discrimination, victimisation and offensive behaviour, and the broad jurisdiction of the Tribunal to punish infringements of the Act, some of these discriminatory practices are continuing.

Literature available by Subscription

The Tribunal does not possess any literature available by subscription.

SECTION 7 (1) (a) (v)Procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Tribunal*How to request information:

- General Procedure

The policy of the Tribunal is to respond to all oral and written requests for information. However, in order to derive the rights given to the applicant under the FOIA (for example the right to challenge a decision if the request for information is refused), the applicant must make such request for information in writing. The applicant must, therefore, complete the Request for Access to Official Document(s) Form that is available at the Registry at the Tribunal or from the Designated Officer, for information that is not readily available to the public.

- Addressing Requests

To ensure prompt handling of requests, please address it to the Designated Officer of the Tribunal. Requests will be acknowledged as official when made on the prescribed form.

- Details in the Request

Applicants must provide sufficient information which will enable the Designated Officer to identify the document(s) being requested. If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is not sure how to write his/her request or what details to include therein, communication with the Designated Officer is recommended.

- Requests not handled under the FOIA

A request under the FOIA will not be processed to the extent that it asks for information, which is readily available to the public, either from this public authority or from another public authority, for example brochures, pamphlets, reports etc.

Responding to your Request:

- Retrieving Documents

The Tribunal is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in our possession, or we can retrieve them from storage.

- Furnishing Documents

An applicant is entitled to copies of information we have in our possession, custody or power. We are required to furnish only one copy of a document. If we cannot make a legible copy of a document, we will furnish the best copy possible and note its quality when replying.

In treating with requests, the Tribunal is not obligated to create new documents, for example, we are not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format you prefer. We are also not required to perform research for you.

Time limits:

- General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days for determination of your request for access to documents. If we fail to meet this deadline, the FOIA gives you the right to proceed as though your request has been denied. The Tribunal will try diligently to comply with the time limit, but where it appears that processing a request may take longer than the statutory limit, the Tribunal will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of the status. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, an applicant may wish to call or write to confirm that the Tribunal has received a request and to ascertain its status.

- Time Allowed

We will determine whether to grant your request for access to information as soon as practicable, but no later than thirty (30) days as required by Section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, you will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

- Fees and Refunds

Section 17 (1) of the FOIA stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies or copies in some other form, such as a tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.
