APPOINTMENT OF AN EXCISE WAREHOUSE

(Customs Act, Chap. 78:01)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Comptroller of Customs and Excise under section 29 of the Excise, (General Provisions) Act, Chap. 78:50. I, Riad Juman, Acting Comptroller of Customs and Excise, do hereby appoint the place specified in the Schedule hereunder to be an Excise Warehouse for the storage of raw material for the manufacture of Tobacco products and for the storage of Finished Goods Manufactured Cigarettes on premises situate at Lot No. C2C Orange Grove Estate, Trincity for sale for local consumption or export.

SCHEDULE

The premises situated at Lot No. C2C, Orange Grove Road, is bounded to the north by vacant land owned by OGC2 Property Limited, at the east by Orange Grove Road, at the west by an unnamed road reserve and at the south by unnamed road reserve. The Excise Bonded Warehouse is an enclosed rectangular area within the building which measures 34.44 metres by 8.23 metres comprising 283.44 square metres, which is fully racked to accommodate Finished Goods Manufactured Cigarettes.

The northern and eastern walls of the Excise Bonded Warehouse area are constructed of brick and mortar, with a secured rolling gate separating the manufacturing area from the bonded area. The area is completely fenced with barricaded high security fencing and metal framing which is secured to the ground from the ceiling to the floor. There are two (2) access gates on the southern side of the fence, one gate is on the eastern side for the finished goods to enter the Excise Bonded Warehouse from the manufacturing area and the second gate is located in the middle of the fencing for the finished goods manufactured cigarettes to be removed to the Sales and Distribution area for sale or export.

The eastern side of the building is the manufacturing area and to the east of the manufacturing area is a two storey office structure. There are also offices and a meeting room on the northern side. On the southern side of the ground floor are offices which are equipped with washrooms, change rooms and a kitchenette.
